Please see para 4 of letter from the Government of India dated the 2nd December 1939. The Political Department have directed that action as suggested in para 4 must be taken when necessary. The Crown Representative and the Resident have concurrent powers under rule 40 of the Defence of India Rules, and it is for consideration whether the Political Department must be consulted. It is just possible that the Crown Representative may desire to issue an order proscribing the publication in all Administered Areas, and there may be overlapping- For orders.

We wish to carry on the same procedure in regard to proscription of publications under the D. of I. Rules (e.g. the publication now in question), & with reference to the concerned para. of their letter would be grateful if we may take such action without their reference to them, forwarding them copies of order issued. Please see section 7 of the Mysore Newspapers Act, 1908. It contains the power of seizure of offending literature. Mysore Act XXV of 1939 is put up. Please see section 3. It is not clear, however, how the present case falls under this provision, as stated by the report of the Indian Express.

I agree: but we need not worry.

S.N. 5:

The provision invoked is Rule 40, and orders must be awaited from the Political Department regarding the proscription of such documents where the Crown Representative and the Resident have concurrent powers.

S.N.'s 6 and 7:

The question is whether similar orders should be issued in the Station. Please see notification of the Government of India dated the 25th^{*} June 1891. As no printed work can be edited, printed or published in the Station without Resident's written permission, it appears no order under the Defence of India Rules need be issued. Please see para 16 of notes. It appears the only provision under which circulation can be prevented in any area of publications proscribed in another area is rule 124. If a publication is in circulation any-where in contravention of an order ^{prohibiting} ~~proscribing~~ its printing or publication by any Provincial Government, clearly "a contravention of ---these Rules ---has been ---committed". It must be admitted that the power is not so direct as is contained in section 19 of the Indian Press (Emergency Powers) Act, 1931, under which any police officer may seize offending documents anywhere in British India. For orders.

As Rao

13.2.40

Probably we can if necessary prevent circulation in Station of all objectionable literature published elsewhere by either

(1) Action under 19 of I.P. Emergency Powers Act, or

(2) action under Rule 124 of Dd I Rules

so all objectionable documents will either be

Under the Defence of India Rules 40 (1) (c) we can declare every copy forfeited of a document containing a prejudicial report, & can assume that of any document against which an order has been passed by a Provincial Govt. under that Rule. Rule 40 (2) gives powers of seizure. Better to make an order about a specific book under 40 before prosecuting under ^{38 &} 39, though a reasonable Court should regard as a prejudicial report a document against which action has been taken under Rule 40 by a Provincial Govt. The same consideration governs action under 124.

The conclusion is:

- (1). If Pol. Dept. agree, we will prescribe under Rule 40 all books proscribed by Parl. Books. under that Rule.
- (2). If possible, we will take action under Rule 40 before proceeding under 38, 39 or 124.
- (3). Com. of Police may now ensure that Higginbottom does not circulate books proscribed elsewhere

26

Please see para 23(i) of notes. The documents etc to be now considered for proscription are those specified in S.N.'s 5,9,10 and 11. Please see S.N.9: it orders the forfeiture of a gramophone record. Document has not been defined in the Defence of India Rules. The General Clauses Act says, however, that a document includes 'any matter written, expressed or described upon any substance by means of letters, figures or marks, or by more than one of those means which is intended to be used, or which may be used, for the purpose of recording that matter' (section 3(16)). The U.P. Government have apparently been advised that matter described on wax by grooves would still be matter written, expressed or described upon a substance by means of "letters, figures or marks", and perhaps the point need not be further pursued until some High Court comes along and pronounces that what is contemplated by the definition is only a representation perceived through the visionary sense and not the auditory.

27

It appears that for the reasons stated in para 18 of notes, action under rule 41 need not be taken in respect of documents mentioned in S.N.'s 6 and 7. Three Drafts submitted.

In the present case as the publication comments on the war it would be appropriate to invoke the provisions of Rule 40(1) read with Rule 34(6)(k) of the Defence of India Rules. Please see notes below & the English booklet.

A glance at the latter will show that the booklet is really pro-Hitler propaganda with a few condemnatory lines at either end.

Even the modified Tamil edition, though it may avoid open expression of approval, must be undesirable since its predecessor was obviously written from a pro-Hitler viewpoint. Also administratively it would be most difficult to take action against one edition & not the other. All versions of the publication "Adolf Hitler" in whatever language may be banned from the CPM Station. Attention of Mysore Govt. may be called to it with a view to their banning it.

It will be interesting to hear what Madras have to say about it.

Other pamphlets ("Subhas Bose", "The Indian" etc) will be dealt with separately.

The booklet entitled "Adolf Hitler" which was published in Madras was banned in the C. & M. Station under the Defence of India Rules. These Rules do not provide for the right of appeal by the publisher unlike under Sec.23 of the Indian Press (Emergency Powers) Act, 1931 (XXIII of 1931). If copies of publications forfeited under the Indian Press Act are seized they are required to be kept undestroyed for two months from the date of the order proscribing them - vide para 23 of the notes and S.Ns. 6, 12 and 13 in file C.126-39. In the absence of similar provision in the Defence of India Rules, it seems that copies of 'Adolf Hitler' now seized by the Station Police may be destroyed at once. ~~The District Magistrate may be informed accordingly.~~

Copy of Letter from W.H.Peppercorn, Esq., M.C., Branch Manager,

To: L.C.Buss, Esq., M.L.A., Cecil Hotel, Simla.

Ref: M.M.1.

D/O.

Dated: 11th September, 1939.

My dear Buss,

DEFENCE OF INDIA RULES 1939.

I understand from the Chief Secretary to Government here that the Provincial Government will shortly be issuing a notification which will cover our Installations at Madras and Cocanada and in that event it will, I consider, meet the case so far as this Province is concerned. There are, however, the following which I think should be covered:-

1. Ernakulam Installation
2. Bangalore Petrol Depot
3. Secunderabad Petrol Depot
4. Quilon Combined Depot.

Apart from Ernakulam Installation, Nos.2 and 3 are of interest from the Military point of view, while Quilon is an important distributing point for South India.

I am not sure what the position is in regard to the Native States. Ernakulam Installation is in Cochin State, while the 3 depots are on railway land situated in Mysore, Hyderabad and Travancore States respectively. Ernakulam Installation, however, is included in the area of responsibility of the newly appointed Fortress Commander at Cochin and we have been in liaison with the British Military Authorities there in regard to the protection of the installation in the event of an emergency which would render existing State Police guards inadequate. Jurisdiction over the Railway lands in Native States on which the 3 depots are situated is vested, I understand, in the Governor General. Existing police arrangements for the safeguarding of these depots are adequate but I should be grateful if you could ascertain what the position is in regard to the application of the Defence of India Rules in their case and more particularly, of course, in the case of Ernakulam Installation and if arrangements for notification could be made Centrally, it would be very satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,
Sd/- W.H.Peppercorn.

I enclose a copy of a pamphlet entitled "Who is Hitler" printed and published in Bangalore City. It contains objectionable passages. The translation of the objectionable passages is enclosed for perusal.
that this pamphlet and some of the other pub mentioned in page 16 of the pamphlet should and confiscated and that the question of taking from the press should also be considered.

The pamphlet came to my notice as the pub wanted the war fund appeal committee to sell the (of which I understand a large number are available) take a small proportion of the proceeds. The Ins Schools is of opinion that the pamphlet is sheer propaganda.

"Hitler, may you be prosperous. Hitler, may you be happy". To greet Hitler with these words is the daily work of the Germans. His presence inspires them with a feeling of unbounded respect and deep devotion. In their opinion he is a great personage who has taken birth for the regeneration of Germany.

The Hero of our story is no drunkard; he is no meat-eater; he does not smoke; nor has he any other vices. He has had no contact with women even in his dreams. He is a man of severe "brahmachary"

Could it be that he was in his past life a "Maherishi" who had been thwarted of his undertaking (Yoga)?

He is a mine of devotion of one's own duty, love of one's own mother-tongue and such other praiseworthy qualities. He is a devoted son who had set before himself the regeneration of his mother-land his life's object, and who is toiling for it day and night.

Page 5. Paragraphs II-IV.

For reasons not known Hitler does not speak. He does not describe his parents. Could it be refer to these, because he cannot claim his descent family, wealthy parents, renowned ancestors, or a hero

Who knows? And what of it? Throughout the endless passage of ages (flow of time), in its glorious histories, there was none so famous for advancing his country.

The first President of the German Socialistic Republic was a cobbler making shoes. Its third President was a man in doing "earth-work". The founder of the Italian Republic was of a blacksmith. Stalin, the master of Russia, is the son of a cobbler who was making saddles. Who could understand the ways of Destiny? Is it humiliating to earn one's own livelihood as a day labourer? I don't think.

Richard I began to rule over England in 1186. Six years later (1192) while returning with the King of France after waging war against Saladin, the ruler of Egypt Richard was taken captive by the Austrian King. The English were enraged on hearing this distressing news. Yet they paid as fine gold coins worth £75,000 for Richard's release. He was released in 1194. The amount thus realised as fine gold was spent in building the fort walls of Vienna.

Hitler's fortunes were down. His difficulties were great. Yet he was finding delight in singing the national prayer which was as follows:-

"We Germans fear God above,

Respected Sir,

I beg to invite your kind attention to the following few lines concerning a booklet "WHO IS HITLER".

This booklet is a narration of Hitler's life up to 1912, i.e. uptill he was a boy of 16. It contains unbiased facts about his early life. It was purposely written to be included among the kannada books now being published by the Mysore State War fund committee.

A copy was sent to the District Magistrate and it was elicited that it contained no ~~objectionable~~ objectionable matter. So it was received for registration under Press Act 25 of ¹⁸⁶⁷ 1866 on 17th May 1941 and then it was put up for sale from 20th May onwards.

Further, I went to the District Collector, C. & M Station, with an application that I would assist the War Effort with my publications. He gave me a patient hearing and received the book-let, I am in the dark to know as to what happened afterwards till I am shown a piece of news in "Desabandhu" banning my book in the Civil and Military station area. No doubt I am surprised to receive such a treatment. However, I pray for an opportunity to show your honour that the booklet does not infringe the defence of India Act, for I yet feel like assisting the War Effort with atleast a sum of Rs.5000/- the minimum realisation of the said book.

Kindly hear my appeal,

REF: NO. W.F. 193/39:-

Respected Sir,

As directed by the Secretary to the Hon'ble
The Resident in Mysore Bangalore in his No. W.F. 193/39, dated 17th June 1941, I beg to bring the following few lines for your kind consideration.

The booklet "Who is Hitler" in Kanada published by me was specially written to be included by the War Fund Committee propoganda unit. It contains unbiased description of Hitler's boyhood. However not a single fact is a falsehood about him. These details were culled from a number of English Magazines. However it is his life upto he was 16 years of age. Then he was only a student. The booklet shows with authorities all true facts about his life.
Absolutely true facts.

I have not written anything about allied Military objectives so as to infringe provisions of Defence of India Act, nor was it my object to do so. I swear that solemnly. If your honourable Office so desires I will read the contents of the said book to any officer sentence by sentence and convince him that it contains no objectionable matter. In addition to this, I have no objection to remove such sentences if any found to be objectionable by your Office

The difficulty is that your Honour cannot personally read Kanada. However, I sent ~~up~~ some copies to the District Magistrate, Bangalore City, as early as April and it was elicited that it contained no objectionable

On both sides, they took the help of some kings, mobilised armies, and waged bloody wars. It is described as Thirty years War in history.

Deadliest of all such Crimes was the Bartholmew Massacre. Bartholmew was a saint. A temple was built in memory of him in France. His followers gather every year in front of the temple in feast.

In 1572, The king of France was Charles IX. Queen Catherine was his mother. She was a mad Catholic, hated protestants. Being induced by her, Charles got a congregation of Protestants comprising children, women and men, numbering one lakh massacred on the 24th. night Augus 1572. The whole country wept over Mother & Father.

Hitler's mother was a Gypsy, and father was a Bohemian. They had no properties. Yet they were goodhearted. Father was a small excise official. His name was Herr Hitler. They were in want of wholesome food & clothing. Very very poor. Living. So how can they give education to their children? How can they ~~to~~ continue living in their birthplace? How can they have wedding? However Hitler received secondary education in Realschule. It was in Linz. He was not an intelligent boy. In his eighth year, he yearned to become an artist.

Once Austria was an empire. Today she is with Germany. Hungary ^{too} Bohemia is a province of these two. Bohemia was once a monarchy of 20000 sq. miles, and 65 lakhs of people. About the size of Mysore. Its capital was Prague. Invertille is a division in Bohemia. In this division is the town Brannau. Its population is 8000. Hitler was born in this town in 1887.

Brannau was a famous battle field in the 30 years war fought from 1618 to 1648. It was a religious war in which Hitler's ancestors fought & got name.

Vienna is one of the big cities in the world. It is very beautiful and clean. The sacred river Danube flows by her.

It is a city of finest parks. Prater-park is one of them. It is eight square miles in extent. When in troubles Hitler and his friend Hanisch used to sleep in this park.

Vienna is divided in to two: - Inner city and Ringstrasse. In the former, you have palaces for the emperor and other royal family members; mansions for the rich; it has very broad avenues; imposing university and high court buildings; St. Stephens' temple with its tallest towers; built in 13th. century; the middle one rises ~~to~~ to a height of 450 feet; and it has barracks for two million army.

Vienna is the birthplace of empresses Maria Theresa. and Maria Antoinette, and the world famous musicians Zohenstrasse, Karl Zorance and Schubert.

It was the capital of the German empire dro Turks back. In this deadly war 100000

Turks perished.

In 1805 and 1809,
France surrounded Vienna but the Austrians pushed them back.

After the Napoleonic regime in Europe in 1814, all the monarchs of Europe gathered in Vienna, and decided many important political matters. There was a revolution in 1848-49 as a result of which

Prince Lator of Hungary was ~~not~~ assassinated ~~and~~ ~~the~~ and the emperor of Austria fled.

, between the German Emperor and the king of Spain a treaty was concluded on 25th. April 1625, to rid the Libralter of the English. Another treaty was concluded between Germany & France by which Lorraine was ceded to France. Now Hitler took back Lorraine. All the treaties of importance concerning Tyrol, Dalmatia, Denmark, Pomerania and Rurj were concluded in Vienna. By these France got Dalmatia and Germany got Pomerania and Rurj from Denmark different capacities, in his early times

Hitler was not able to get employment for a long time. He went to a number of places in search of work and in vain & got disgusted. Finally he came to a 'Charity Home'. It is behind the south railway station. There were a great ~~and~~ number of poor in it. Every morning a large number of poor used to gather in front of it and get written permission to have free lodging &

boarding for five days.

The same way Hitler got in. He was shown a corner; was given a wire spring cot, two bedsheets, a tin vessel to keep food and a bottle to keep water. The dby removed his dirty clothes, and gave him another set.

At 11 a.m. Hitler took hotwater. bath and hot meal and slept.

Friends.

There was another poor young man by the side of Hitler. His name was Reinhold Hanisch. Friendship grew between them. When they were all alone Hitler used to relate all about his sufferings.

He said that after the death of his father a pension of 50 Cronen was given by the government. As his sister newly setup her family life with her husband, she used to draw the pension. She was not giving her brother anything.

Hitler was unwilling to go & stay with his sister.

He remained in a rented room for some time and was ejected for arrears.

Then he began to sleep in parks and other public places, ~~also~~ ~~in~~ ~~the~~ like varandahs, etc. This was in Kaiserstrasse.

One day he was very hungry and approached a drunkard who beat him with a cane. This bad period might have been from 1908 to 1913.

Charity.

After five days, both Hitler and Hanisch came out and were shown Mother Superior Caterine's Convent.

In this convent ~~as~~ no lodging; only food given.

So they began getting food from the convent and eat in Prator

Park, and spend their time here and there.

When they did not get food from the convent, they used to get from other sources on charity basis. Like this they spent 6 months in 1909

Friend Hanisch

business. They rented a small room. When the business was dull and they were not able to pay rent, Hitler

used to go to North
- railway

station and carry luggage and give his earnings to Hamisch to pay rent.

Hitler Hates Jews.

Yet all who used to give him money; provide him with ~~money~~ food and clothing were jews.
 A few instances are given below.

Robinsonsohem was Jew. He was a lock maker and giving Hitler hand-loans. Neumann was a merchant, giving Hitler clothes and repaying his debts. Jacob Altenberg of Siednar Hauptstrasser

La de Berger of Favorintinstrasse, and Morganstan of Liechtenstrasse, were all purchasing water colour pictures painted by ~~Hitler~~ Hitler. All these are Jews.

The donors of all the charitable institutions
 Hitler used to visit were Jews. They are in Erdberg, Riedling and Favorintin. Jewish Baron
 Konigswarter built Erdberg charity home
 and it was managed with his money. Hitler is known to all these places. To go round these three places it would take two to three hours a day.

If it is translated in

We Germans fear God
above,

But nothing else on this Earth.

In a particular week he did not get a pie. So he thought of writing to his sister.

He went with his friend to Arthur Cafe in Miding, ~~sees~~ secured paper and stamp and wrote a letter requesting his sister to send 50 crown care of Vienna Postmaster.

Hitler was exceedingly glad to receive this amount on Xmas day in 1909. Both proceeded to Dorotheum and bought a winter coat for Hitler for 12 crown, and went to Maennerkium, Middlemenstrasse, 20th. District, Vienna and took complete rest.

Water Colour Pictures,

Hitler began ~~to~~ painting water colour pictures ~~and~~ in right earnest
 and Hanisch began selling them. Both of them were glad as their difficulties began to vanish and business began to improve.

Friend Neumann.

It was in April 1910, another year by name, Neumann became a thick friend of Hitler.
 Hitler did not come to Hanisch for a week.
 On the 8th. day Hanisch met Hitler in the association Neumann,
 both examining paintings
 in the town hall.

Hanisch was a horrible smoker, and began coughing incessantly.

Hitler found fault with Hanisch and asked him to give up smoking for good.

In the month of May a man by name Greiner became a friend. He was a lampmaker in The Theatre under Wein in Halle. He was intelligent and a bit educated. Hitler used to discuss and debate political matters with him.

Cooperative Society.

These two friends organised a workers cooperative society. Greiner was its secretary and Hitler ^{its} president. Every skilled worker can become a member, and the articles made by the members can be sold by the society and ~~the~~ distribute profits of the Christian Socialists. He was high in Hitler's estimation. Both ~~to~~ hated Jews, and advocated antisemitism. In Germany this school of thought spread with lightning speed. Founder of antisemitism was Prince Otto von Bismarck. Hitler became a follower of the same and in spreading it he got good ~~to~~ name.

'The Film Tunnel'

One day Hitler went to see a Cinema show, with friends. It was 'The Tunnel', written by the famous author Bernhard Kellermann. There was a lecturer in the story who, by his lectures instilled ~~this audience~~ ^{Germans} with the spirit of nationalism and became a great leader. Hitler began pondering over the story and thought of organising a political party likewise.

During his student days, the History of the German Revolution of 1848-49

caught his imagination Richard Wagner was the leader of that revolution. He was also an intimate friend of King Ludwig of Bavaria

Likewise Hitler
 wanted to become a leader of present
 Germany.

In forwarding herewith petition dated the 3rd July 1941 received from the Editor of the book, I have the honour to state that the Deputy Inspector of Schools, who was consulted as to the advisability of publishing the book after expunging the objectionable passages, states that they are only the most outstanding of the objectionable passages and that even after they were expunged the book could not be considered unobjectionable. He also observes that the author has adopted language and style as if depicting a hero and which cannot but enlist the sympathy and admiration of the readers for Hitler. I agree with him.

In continuation of my letters of notes.

I had an interview with the Secretary to the Honble the Resident, this morning (3.7.1941). During the conversation, it transpired that there are some paras in the said book who is Hitler, that depict Hitler as a fine character.

Unfortunate as it is that I am not able to print the entire work in one volume, and there are parts II & III, to be printed, wherein the real character Hitler is systematically portrayed on the notorious facts of the outrageous Nazi policy; Throwing ample light on

2

- (i) Hitler's blood-baths on the night of the long knife in 1934 when he got murdered 349 of his own intimate friends and Nazi leaders;
- (ii) On the butchery of Ernst Erck, the chosen editor of the Nazi organ, because he knew much of The Reichstag Fire Trial, invented by Hitler to blame and put down the Socialists and other political parties opposed to Hitler's leadership, just before the general election;
- (iii) His duplicity in dealings with the revered Chamberlain on the Czech question the rape of Prague, and on the encroachment of Memel;
- (iv) His insulting behaviour with Lord Halifax on the question of the German Colonies; (v) His persecution of ²¹⁵Jews, wherein a number of incidents are brought to light, which go to show that Hitler as the evil genius of the Nazi Brown Terror, and so on so forth.

However I have assented ~~to~~ before the Hon. Secretary that I would delete the paras marked which give room to difficulties in the present book. Then he was pleased to direct me to you Sir, to put matters in the same light.

Further I beg to state, Sir, that I have no books, now and in getting them printed I will certainly delete the marked portions. Pray that the ban order may be lifted subject to the above conditions, and my library books may be ordered to be returned.

I am really very sorry for what has happened and may be pardoned for having troubled your office. Thanking you again and again.
